

Sven Giegold

Member of the European Parliament for the Green Party

Topic of Speech:

Should we tax the bankers?

*Will the European Union regulate the city?
How can bankers be taxed without causing them to flee the country?
What would make for a more just tax system?*

His expertise:

A member of the European Parliament committee 'Economic and Monetary Affairs' and the 'Special Committee on the Financial, Economic and Social Crisis' that will draft any new EU regulations

Other Activities:

- Founding Member of Attac : an Europe wide social movement (one of the largest with Greenpeace) which fights for the introduction of a global tax on financial transactions
- Engagement against capital flight in the 'Tax Justice Network'

Date:

4th of March, Trinity College – Danson room and 7.30pm

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
EUROPEAN AFFAIRS SOCIETY

